

Visual Historical Source Analysis

Content

What is pictured or represented in the image?
How is the image organized? What is the focal point?
If there is text, what does it say?

Connections

How does this connect with what you already know?

Essential Question:

Type of Source

Communications

How does the visual express bias or point of view?

Conclusions

How can we now understand the essential question?